

- function to crop the image 2X bigger or smaller, or 3X bigger or smaller by increasing and decreasing pixel sizes of the image.
- Void `dimbright_image()`
 - by selecting the values from the brightness chart, user will be able to dim or brighten the image within 4 levels.
- After each change, the function will have a `save_change()` function to save the changes made and return to function after `choose_image`. This will provide the user to make change each time until closing the file.
- Return 1

Void `exit_image()`

- This will close the program
- Return 0

Void `save_image()`

- Save image to file.
- Return to the function to close the program.
- Return 0